Crowds Jam DHS Streets For Parade

Brightly costumed members of the Desert Hot Springs Woman's Club captured the first place float award today as the biggest parade in DHS history opened the city's 1957 Wild Flower Show.

The club outshined the other 45 flower-decked entries which faced float-shredding wind blasts as the parade wound through DHS streets packed by more than 2,000 cheering spectators.

THE HISTORY-MAKING parade was staged as a double-barreled salute to the town's founding father, Aubrey Wardman, and the Wild Flower Show, which opened its two-day run at the Veterans Hall following the parade.

Runners-up in ribbon awards were the Marine Band and marching unit from Twentynine Palms, second; the March Air Force Band, third; and Whittier Drill Team, which marched off with a special ribbon award.

Reigning over the mile-long caravan were King Ricker Stewart and Queen Sandy McGhee, escorted by the young princes and princesses of their courts.

Mayor Asks Support Of Community Chest

Deeply concerned because contributions to the current Palm Springs Community Chest Drive have fallen off alarmingly, Mayor Florian G. Boyd yesterday officially called attention to this grave situation in an official proclamation.

A copy of the proclamation was presented to Oscar Stern, vice president of the Community Chest and Mrs. Jack Freeman, chairman of volunteer workers, at the new Royal Air Country Club furnished model apartment at 389 Tahquitz Drive, which is on exhibition throughout April for the purpose of helping the Community Chest attain its elusive goal.

IN HIS PROCLAMATION Mayor Boyd pointed out the fact that our local agencies will suffer extensively unless Community Chest contributions are stepped up considerably and promptly. He urged all our citizens to take the Com-

State's Vitality Exceeds Nation's, Williams Says

Under Secretary of Commerce W. Walter Williams glanced at the Golden State's booming economy yesterday and declared that California's vitality exceeds that of the rest of the nation.

"The economy of America is productive and strong," Williams stated. "The economy of California is even stronger."

Williams measured the state's financial muscle power in an address to the more than 250 delegates attending the 1957 convention of the California Mortgage Bankers Association.

THE ASSOCIATION wound up its three-day conclave at El Mirador Hotel yesterday following its election of officers.

Williams singled out California's "impressive" economic growth and its relative comparison with the nation as a whole. The state's picture magnified the nation's economic power, he noted, adding: "But as strong as California's economy is, bright as are the prospects of its citizens for the future, the economy of each one of our 48 states is inescapably linked to the national economy."

TO PROTECT the future, Williams urged mortgage bankers to retain clear minds, exercise discipline and increase their "economic literacy."

Pointing up the mushrooming growth of California economy, Williams explained that the state's total personal income has expanded four and three-quarter times since 1929, which, in dollar volume, marked the largest expansion of any state and equaled the combined aggregate growth of 22 states.

VIEWING THE national economic scene, Williams noted that total employment in February established a new record by topping 63 million.

He also said that consumers incomes reached a new high while unemployment remained at an unchanged level over last year. The out-of-work force represented about four per cent of the total labor market.

INDUSTRYWISE, WILLIAMS pointed out that plant and equipment investment in California is the highest in the nation.

IN ADDITION to aiding this most worthy cause, visitors to Royal Air will preview a unique and distinctive development. Located only three blocks west of the Library and occupying the seven historic acres that formerly served the Desert Inn Mashie Golf Course, Royal Air is bringing Palm Springs its first downtown district country club way of life. It will have 71 home-size apartments ready for occupancy in 1958.

community Chest's plight to heart by visiting the Royal Air model apartment home.

Agencies affected by this dearth of funds, the Boys Club, Youth Center, Welfare and Friendly Aid, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts and Desert Museum, will all be assisted through admission donations received by Community Chest representatives at the Royal Air model home.

Civic Leaders Protest Name Change of RR

Hotels, Merchants, City, Chamber Ask Explanation

A storm of protest followed the announcement in the Desert Sun yesterday that Southern Pacific Railway station in Palm Springs will carry the name of "West Palm Springs," and civic organizations and public administrators have declared they will protest the change.

The reason for the change, as explained by a SP spokesman, was to stop confusion in freight shipping between the Southern Pacific and its subsidiary, Pacific Motor Trucking.

MAYOR FLORIAN BOYD led off the protests today as he said that he believed "the city council would protest the name change with all its power."

He added that as far as Southern Pacific is concerned "it might mean better freight service, but it certainly is not a very cooperative attitude."

City Manager Robert W. Peterson, on hearing the news, said that it was "understandable, because the Station is some distance from town and it will probably save confusion, but in view of the fact that the name will be changed on time-tables and on the building, it may have a disadvantage, and should be investigated."

STRONGEST PROTEST came from Retail Merchants Association President Adrian Rosen, who on reading the news exclaimed that he "was flabbergasted."

On hearing that the name had been changed on Feb. 1, he charged that Southern Pacific "was trying to reduce the importance of our station to where it would become just a flag stop. This matter will be taken before the Retail Merchants meeting on Tuesday, and I am certain strong protests will be filed."

"We have been very displeased with the service by Southern Pacific and have made request after request of the company (loud speakers at the station, directional signs, etc.) but they have done no good. The closing of the downtown station last summer was a move that I would say is not conducive to promoting this community."

HARRY PAISLEY, president of the Palm Springs Hotel and Apartment Association, reported that that organization "will be 100 per cent against this move, and will see PROTEST, Page 2"

Israel Not To Be Invited, Report Says

War Danger Still Exists In Middle East

By UNITED PRESS

An authoritative Cairo newspaper reported today that Egypt has agreed to participate in a 15 nation conference on neutral grounds to thrash out a Suez Canal settlement.

The newspaper Al Gomhouriya, owned by the government of President Gamal Abdel Nasser, said the conference would be held in Geneva under the chairmanship of U. N. Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

THERE WAS NO immediate confirmation of this from Egyptian officials or other interested capitals.

Al Gomhouriya said Israel would not be invited to the conference. This would bring a loud and strong protest from Jerusalem.

Israel has insisted it be given the same rights as any other nation in navigating the waterway and has put out hints it will test these rights soon. Officials in Washington said this might result in a major Middle East blowup if Egypt barred an Israeli ship.

U. S. AMBASSADOR Raymond Hare has been conducting top level discussions in Cairo attempting to get Egypt to moderate its insistence on a "one-man show" in operating the canal.

There was no immediate indication how much success he was having.

Meanwhile, the tiny Mediterranean nation of Lebanon today became the first Arab state to give parliamentary approval of the Eisenhower Doctrine for the Middle East.

By a 30-2 vote the Lebanese legislature endorsed the March 16 action of its government in wholeheartedly accepting the U. S. plan to combat Communist infiltration in Middle Eastern countries.

The parliamentary action prompted the resignation of four members who protested Lebanon was turning its back on concerted action with other Arab states.

Teamster Local Hangs Four Top Leaders in Effigy

PITTSBURGH, Pa. — Teamster President Dave Beck and his top administrative assistants have been hanged in effigy by a local which he placed in trusteeship 15 months ago.

Straw-stuffed figures representing Beck; James R. Hoffa, vice president; Frank Brewster, a West Coast representative, and Einar Mohn, Beck's personal assistant, were strung up Friday night at headquarters of Local 249 which has a membership of 10,000.

Local 249 President Thomas L. Fagan said the officers and rank-and-file members were "aroused over what has happened up to the present in the Senate probe."

Late News Bulletins

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. UP — Walter Reuther, president of the United Automobile Workers, revealed today his union plans to ask for a four-day work week as well as higher pay in its next contract.

DENVER UP — A new snowstorm hit the Northern Rockies today, bringing warnings to motorists and livestock growers of three to eight inches of snow, and possible drifts.

BULLETIN — A special meeting of all pet owners and animal lovers has called for 2 p. m., Tuesday, at the home of Mrs. Aileen Stephens, 618 Mesquite Avenue.

officially protest it following our meeting next Tuesday. I am going to take it before the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce on Thursday. We're pretty mad about them making this move without letting us in on it."

Tom Kieley, president of the Chamber of Commerce, said that it was the first he had heard of it, and called representatives of Southern Pacific to be present Thursday at the Chamber of Commerce meeting to explain their position in the matter.

APPARENTLY THE only man in Palm Springs who was given any hint as to what was coming was Chamber of Commerce Manager Jimmy Cooper, who said that he "had had an informal discussion with Sanford (Sandy) Cooper, Palm Springs freight-passenger agent, concerning a contemplated change, but I did not realize that it would mean that the name would be changed. My understanding of it at the time was that it merely clarified the situation in respect to shipping freight and to let passengers know that they would be 10 miles or so from Palm Springs even after they arrived at the depot."

Private Services Set for Bescos

Private funeral services are pending for Joseph Paul Bescos, 50, of 115 South El Segundo, who died yesterday after an illness of four years.

A native of California, he had been a resident of Palm Springs for four years. He was working locally as a gardener for a local landscaping firm.

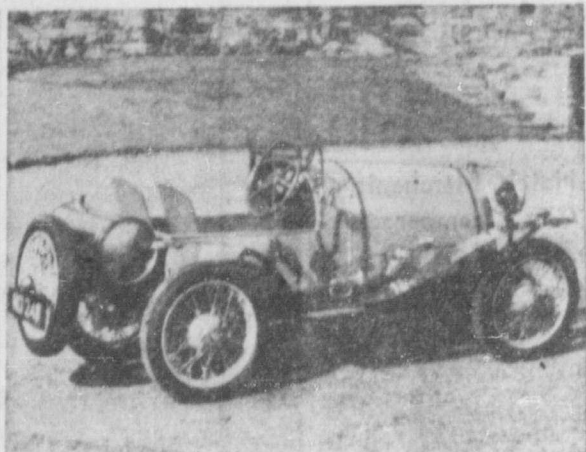

He is survived by his wife, Norma Bescos, and two sons, Phil and Paul.

Wife and son Mortuary is in charge of arrangements.

The Masquers to Present 'The Crucifixion' April 7, 10, 14

For their first featured play of the season, Coachella Valley's little theatre group, The Masquers, will present "The Crucifixion," a miniature passion play by the Rev. Arthur M. Gard. This play which will be given in three performances at St. John's Church, Indio, will be given as a benefit for that church.

Maure Solt, Masquer's president, stated that "The Crucifixion" was chosen as the group's first vehicle because it is entirely in keeping with the season and because it is a "fine beautiful play providing excellent entertainment."

Burglars Get Bogey, Miss $2,000 At O'Donnell

A burglary of the pro shop at O'Donnell Golf Course, netted the culprits a total of $7.90, after what is believed to have been hours of searching, and they left behind $2,000 in a safe and thousands of dollars worth of prizes for the Women's Invitational Golf Tournament.

Using a screw-driver, the burglars pried open the window in the southeast corner of the building for entry.

Larry Sitter, manager of the club, had been in the building until 9 p.m., Thursday, counting money and making an inventory, and Lt. Robert White said that it is believed that someone had seen him and waited for him to leave before entering the building.

The burglary was found and reported by Sitter about 7 a.m., yesterday, when he opened the shop and found everything tipped over and thrown about in the room.

Junior Ballroom
Dance Classes

Howard Haddock, city recreation superintendent, and Carl Plate, Youth Center director, announced today that Junior Ballroom Dancing classes for the sixth and seventh grades will continue until the end of May.

A new class will be formed for the seventh and eighth grade students.

A successful party was given for the class by the mothers of the students who completed their eight-week course.

The Classes will be held every Monday night at the Youth Center from 6:45 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. for the sixth and seventh grades, and from 7:45 p.m. to 8:45 p.m. for the seventh and eighth grades.

Betty Royer, an outstanding teacher, will again be in charge of the classes. Every boy and girl of the Palm Springs Unified School District is invited to attend these classes.

Easter Seals Campaign
To Continue to April 21

Colorful Easter Seals have been mailed to more than four million California homes as the 1957 campaign to raise $1,231,000 in the state for crippled children and adults reached its full swing.

Acting to spark the statewide fund drive, Gov. Goodwin J. Knight has proclaimed the period from March 15 through April 21 as "Easter Seal Time."

The California Society for Crippled Children noted that last year's Easter Seal contributions helped serve 14,835 persons, of whom 13,125 were children.

This year's campaign features two Easter Seal designs, and two Easter Seal girls, who will travel around the state to promote the drive.

The girls are both victims of Legg Perthes disease, in which the hip bone does not develop. The girls are now able to walk with crutches after three years of bed and wheel chair confinement.

PALM SPRINGS' DRIVERS
NATION'S MOST COURTEOUS

Having driven in scores of cities from coast to coast it has been interesting to observe that motorists in the various localities develop many habits in common. It is often marked as the physical characteristics of the various cities.

The practice of frequent (and unnecessary) horn blowing, for example, seems to be habit forming. They either do it a lot, or very little, depending on the town or city. One of the nation's quietest cities is Memphis, Tenn., where an unnecessary blast will draw a fine. One of the noisiest, I believe, is San Antonio where, by the way, numerous drivers burn their bright lights in the city.

As might be expected of the automobile capital, Detroit drivers are the most skilled, and traffic there moves along at a fast clip. San Francisco residents must also know how to handle their cars well with all those steep hills—and the City by the Golden Gate is no place for the inexperienced motorists. It's tough.

One encounters many slow drivers in the rural areas but Oklahoma and Kansas seem to have more per mile. Traffic moves slow in congested Houston, Texas, where drivers have reason to be impatient. It's a tough city to get through but they're building a by-pass now that will save half an hour and a bad headache.

Strangers Get The Horn

It is unfortunate that drivers in almost all towns and cities are invariably impatient with strangers trying to find their way around. One pause to read a sign or look for a traffic signal usually results in a blast from the car just behind—which only adds to your confusion. Even in areas which spend big sums to attract vacationists, the rule nearly always holds true. In Mobile, Alabama, the Jaycees have posted a route dubbed "Azalea Trail" so visitors can see the gorgeous displays of these colorful Spring flowers. But pause a moment to locate a sign and you frequently get the horn treatment.

Since it is so easy to note the out-of-state license plate, there is no excuse for such thoughtlessness.

Man In The Street

Most communities also have a reputation for treating pedestrians with contempt or consideration. Right now I happen to be in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida, where pedestrians must run for their lives. Even in crosswalks a person is in mortal danger the moment he steps from the curb. Indeed, they will whiz by in both directions while a person stands trapped in the middle of the street. It's not only dangerous but downright discourteous.

In all my wanderings I have never found one other place where pedestrians are given the right-of-way like they are in Palm Springs. People are almost as safe in crosswalks as on the sidewalks. Out-of-town drivers soon fall into the habit of watching out for carefree vacationists crossing the streets.

Many people notice the Palm Springs Safety Council sticker on our car and comment about it. They praise this effort to encourage people to be courteous in their cars as well as in their homes and stores.

It has also helped me to be more considerate of other drivers—even when they toot their horns at me!

JOHN MORLEY

The Ben Gurion I Know

When you first meet Israel's controversial prime minister, David Ben-Gurion, he gives you the impression of an ancient prophet from the pages of Holy Land history. When he raises his dynamic voice in argument, you realize once again how appearances are deceiving.

For while Ben-Gurion at 70 may look like a Near East sage, his white thinning hair disheveled and unkempt, he packs a pile-driver force that crumbles his opponents in and out of Israel's Knesset (parliament).

IF BEN GURION and Nasser should ever sit down to compromise the wide gap between them Ben-Gurion will outsmart and out-argue his younger adversary regardless of the righteousness of his position.

For David Ben-Gurion is fanatically obsessed with the right of Israel to exist as a nation and the greater right to be respected as such, especially by the likes of Nasser in the Near East.

DAVID BEN-GURION is an extreme idealist and a visionary. He is a devout Socialist who practices his belief. He is even critical of wealthy U. S. Jews who have poured their wealth in behalf of his country.

He bluntly informs his listener, "I don't care what anybody thinks of Israel, or our right to be here. We will rise or fall by what we do here, not what the world thinks," he said to me one day in Tel Aviv. "I want the world to think kindly of us, but we are too busy repairing our house to worry about our neighbors."

PRIME MINISTER Ben-Gurion is just as intolerant with his friends as with his enemies. It's in the personality of the man to want his ideas put in force, regardless. That Israel has survived these past ten turbulent years is due to a great extent to the uncompromising personality of this dedicated man.

For the survival and growth of Israel is Ben-Gurion's only mission in life. He has never given an inch and probably never will if he thinks it will retard the security of Israel. When he ordered the recent withdrawal of Israeli troops from Gaza and the Gulf of Aquaba, many observers concluded that the "old man was slipping."

But far from slipping, "B-G" negotiated masterly with the United States and extracted important moral commitments from President Eisenhower that will prove of much more lasting benefit to Israel than the wasteland he agreed to give up.

BEN-GURION TALKS as though he ruled the entire Near East and that divine power has commissioned him to rule it. He is a dreamer, a fighter, philosopher, all in one. He is more of a radical than an extremist. He is almost devoid of humor. He appears to be listening to what you say, but his answers often ignore the question under discussion.

"A well-trained diplomat can juggle the facts to prove anything that he wants to prove; therefore, I don't trust anyone's facts but my own," Ben-Gurion announced in one of his rare press conferences. On another occasion he said, "Things can be staged to appear like facts, and since I can't always be around to check their origin, I prefer to think of certain facts presented to me with a skeptical eye."

WHEN PRESENTED with proof that thousands of Jewish immigrants entered Israel in violation of the British White Paper (agreement on refugees), Ben-Gurion retorted: "Such statistics are for bookkeepers. We shall provide a sanctuary for our people without regard to White Paper trivialities."

Israeli masses react with a reverent respect for David Ben-Gurion for what he has accomplished for Israel. His judgement, often in opposition with powerful groups, has proved more right than wrong.

THE PEOPLE ADMIRE him for his ability to decide in a crisis, such as in 1948 when he proclaimed the State of Israel against the advice of President Truman and General Marshall, who warned him of a possible Arab attack. "Let them come," Ben-Gurion said, "we will lick them."

He not only licked them, but on the day of his courageous proclamation establishing the State of Israel, the United States was first to give it recognition, indeed a remarkable double-barreled victory for the shrewd Ben-Gurion.

DAVID BEN-GURION came up the hard way from his native Zaslav, Poland in 1907 and worked as a plough-boy in an immigrant settlement near the Sea of Galilee. From childhood he was obsessed with what he calls "the universal truth." "I prefer philosophy to anything else," he said, "because it deals with basic human truths."

He is more at home with Plato and Spinoza, the teachings of ancient religions, than the art of statesmanship. He is openly critical of the middle classes in Israel. "Too many of them lying in the sun at the beaches, and not enough of them working in the sun."

HIS PLOW-BOY training is still apparent when he walks in to parliament in short sleeves and open shirt collar. When his friends joke about his informality, he informs them that "what's good enough for his home and neighbors is good enough for his associates."

He lives more like a working farmer than a prime minister. He prefers to eat in the kitchen at home with his wife, son and daughter-in-law than any place else. He insists that his wife darn his socks and mend his shorts. Those who have grown with him say B-G hasn't changed at all.

Ben-Gurion's dominant Socialists maintain their hostility against those fostering rabbinical sway in Israel. "Since less than 20 per cent of our people are Orthodox," he said, "religion should not exert absolute power." So long as Ben-Gurion lives it is not likely that Hebrew orthodoxy will ever wield absolute power in Israel.

'At Least It'll Feel Good If He Quits'

THIS SIDE of The Sun
By Phat

We've had a north,
And now get a West.
The latter, I think,
Is not for the best.

Am referring to that news item in Friday's Desert Sun in which it was set forth that the Southern Pacific had changed the name of its Palm Springs station to West Palm Springs.

THAT IS GOING to take Palm Springs off the Southern Pacific map. And I think that it is important to be on any or all maps. It is o. k., probably, to shine in the reflected glory of the name, "Palm Springs," like North Palm Springs. There was even a proposal once, I believe, to change the name of Cathedral City to East Palm Springs. That didn't jell which is good because Cathedral City is a name in itself. So far, no one had come up with a plan for South Palm Springs.

BUT THAT West Palm Springs. The new SP time-tables will be out in time for daylight time which goes into effect in California at 2 a. m. on Sunday, April 28.

And there will be no Palm Springs listed. Only West Palm Springs. That, I personally think, is not too good. It's no good at all.

So, if you notice, I am writing just SP, not FSP, today; I don't think their action is friendly.

OF COURSE, some people may agree with the SP. Say that it is bad to have a train roll into a station which says Palm Springs and be right in the middle of a desert without a building except a few yellow section hand houses and the depot, itself.

Many times I have butted into a conversation in the club car to tell the gentleman that that cluster of buildings to the north is not Palm Springs. Palm Springs is a thriving city situated around the corner of the mountain. Bob Howard put up a sign to take care of that.

THE CHANGE, I understand, was due to tariff complications and a ruling by the Interstate Commerce Commission that the Pacific Motor Trucking could not handle interstate freight.

The PMT, a subsidiary of the SP, can handle intrastate cargoes but not interstate. The name change was made to clarify the situation.

The only difference that I can see is that an eastern shipper will now know that freight consigned to Palm Springs will go to West Palm Springs and that the consignee will have to get it here by himself.

Complicated—but it takes us off the map.

AND THAT IS BAD. We've lost our railroad. Or it has lost us. If the SP just had to make that change, why not do as the Santa Fe does? They miss Ontario and Pomona, for instance, by two miles but their time tables put it this way. They list Upland and put Ontario right below in parentheses. Similarly, North Pomona (Pomona).

It would help some, if in their new time-tables, they would list it West Palm Springs. And underneath in bold type: PALM SPRINGS.

Good News Today

The customers sometimes complain that good news is no news and never sees the light of day in any newspaper. I aim to make them eat their words today.

This is a story of a good deed in a naughty world that just grew, like Topsy out of the fact that American kids are completely geared to automation and push-button living.

The story begins, two years ago when John Burton Tigrett, an old friend of mine, walked into a store in his home town, Jackson, Tenn., with the intention of buying a small phonograph as a birthday present for his youngest son.

"WHEN I FOUND I couldn't get one for less than nine or 10 dollars," Tigrett said when he was in New York recently, "and not a very good one at that. I decided there ought to be a market for an inexpensive and, I hoped, a practically indestructible unit for small children."

So Tigrett, who is a toy manufacturer, set his factory geniuses to work on the invention of an inexpensive phonograph. They came up with one, all right, made of plastic and priced at $1.98, and Tigrett thought he had a world-beater to add to his toy line.

BUT HE HADN'T reckoned without the automated, push button American child. The $1.98 model had to be wound by hand. And even though this junior hi-fi model played Elvis Presley loud and clear, no American kid would touch it because it was hand operated. If the All-American child couldn't push-button the toy, he wouldn't play.

So Tigrett was about to discontinue manufacture of the phonograph when a religious publication published two or three hundred words about the $1.98 phonograph. Within a fortnight, the Tigrett offices were snowed under by letters from American missionaries and missionary boards.

APPARENTLY THE mission field had been praying for an inexpensive phonograph to take the Gospel on records, in native dialects, to every corner of the world. Tigrett was stunned by this new market, eager to cut records in 50 Indian dialects for Mexico, twice that many in Africa and others for locales as diverse as Ecuador and New Guinea.

The chairman of the Bible Balloon Project of the International Council of Churches wrote to ask if the phonographs, with Gospel records, were suitable for delivery to Russia and the satellite nations via balloons.

"WE ARE ALWAYS interested in any way that we can get the Gospel behind the Iron Curtain," the letter concluded.

So Tigrett found himself with a humming business on hand. And he decided if the Lord's work could be done in this way, he could forego a profit on the phonograph rejected by American kids because it involved manual labor. So, for missionary work, he shaved the price to 98 cents per machine and today, almost 30,000 of these small, tough phonographs are being hand-wound in far places to carry the message of Christianity.

A DELIGHTED missionary in New Guinea wrote that the phonograph was carrying the Gospel to a hundred locales he had found difficult to reach in the past. He had sent the machines and records into the jungles with students trained in the mission school.

Orders for the phonograph continue to pour in from the mission field, and John has a new project on hand. He believes he can cut the price of the phonographs to 50 cents each, the cost of manufacturing, if he can only kid the raw materials out of business friends around the country.

The Bare Truth

NEW YORK—"I'm about the only blonde in Hollywood who hasn't posed without her clothes on," giggled Mamie Van Doren as she sat combing her platinum locks in her hotel suite.

"And now that I'm a mother"—she flung out her chest proudly—"I'm glad. Do you realize I've got a baby boy a year old last Monday? And is he a stinker!"

"Are you against nude posing?" I asked.

"I'm neutral," she shrugged. "I don't think there's any future in it . . . for me. Now that I'm a STAR!" And Mamie laughed.

IT'S NOT EASY for the former Joan Olander, of Rowena, S.D. (pop. 60), who used to be a Broadway chorus girl, to believe that she really is a star, although they keep telling her she attained it in "Untamed Youth," which'll be out momentarily.

"You've never done any nudes?" I inquired . . . because You Know Who and You Know Who Else evidently did in the years before.

"Well, I did some semi-nudes for Vargas for my own personal file—but I destroyed them. Because what if they got out of my hands?"

MAMIE IN THE pinch had answered the question frankly because fundamentally she seems to be an honest non-phony gal. It was the same when I asked her about her marriage to band leader and TV star Ray Anthony.

"So far, so good." She went on combing, making big arcs as she combed the hair out in front of her.

"But it gets rough sometimes. Wow, does it get rough!"

"We have a 20-room house and seven bathrooms. We have separate bedrooms, it gets so rough. His hours are late as an orchestra leader, mine are early going to the studio. We say we'll probably be married 25 years."

"HAVE YOU BEEN a good wife?"

"I haven't cheated on him!" "There were items printed about a separation."

"It's never been that rough!" And so it went with the onetime Cheesecake Queen withholding nothing. "I was on Ray's TV show once," she mentioned. "They wouldn't let me wiggle. They made me sit in a chair and sit still!"

"How do you get along with the other gals who've seen you come up?" I asked. "Like Jayne Mansfield?"

"I ONLY KNOW HER to say hello to except we don't say hello. I don't think she digs me too much." Mamie considered that reply for a second, then said, "Oh, yes, we did say hello when she saw me with my husband. They were in a picture together."

"But the other girls?" "You'd be surprised at some of those girls who are supposed to have good figures! I look at their bras in wardrobe. By the way, did you know my figure got better?"

"How could it?"

Bob Hope Gets Asking Price

HOLLYWOOD—The boys in Toronto did a double take when they heard Bob Hope's terms—but after mulling it over they decided it would be worth it to the Canadian National Exhibition to pay, Rapid Robert a record $125,000, plus 50 per cent of everything taken in at the boxoffice over $487,000, for his appearance there from Aug. 26 to Sept. 7.

Ol' Ski-Nose will bring along a number of other Hollywood stars for his Toronto show—possibly Marilyn Maxwell, Frances Langford or Gloria De Haven, among others—but THEIR salaries will come out of Bob's big bundle . . . Spring is here and here's what Bob has to say about it: "Spring—that's when the boys begin to feel gallant and the gals begin to feel buoyant!"

TOMMY SANDS' agents are trying to get 20th-Fox to co-star the lad with Molly Bee in the upcoming movie version of Tommy's TV smash "The Singin' Idol." Their devoted interest in Miss Molly is understandable—they're her agents too.

When Wilbur Clark, head man at the Desert Inn in Las Vegas is Person-to-Person'd by Ed Murrow on May 17 the interview will begin, as usual, in the interviewee's living room.

BUT—AND THERE'S NOTHING usual about this!—while the commercial is being pumped into YOUR living rooms, Clark will be making a fast dash to the Desert Inn's gambling casino, three blocks from his home, accompanied by a squad of traffic police, and he and Ed will resume from there.

George Gobel, taking a cue

"THANK YOU! Anyway, you know how flat I was in the back. Well, now I'm not. They gave me pills to take to thin me down. I threw 'em away!"

"What all have you got going for you?"

"Oh, did you know I'm co-starring with Clark Gable in 'Teacher's Pet'? I do a strip tease. I got a white garter belt and I throw my white lace panties at Clark. I have a love scene with him, too. I don't know what's going to happen!"

Mamie laughed. "Doris Day's in the picture, too!"

Like all other movie actresses, Mamie has discovered she has a voice and has a record out called, "Go, Go, Calypso."

"A guy in Cincinnati says it might be a hit," she told me.

MAMIE IS A refreshing addition to the entertainment scene, one who is justifiably amazed that she has come this far. The fact that "they're going to put my name above the title," overwhelms her.

"The opening scene had me swimming in a ditch with nothing on. They dyed this bathing suit flesh-colored, see."

"We had 50 jet pilots watching that scene. The producer, Howard Koch, said, 'Hey, there's a noise back there.' Somebody else said, 'It's those guys breathing.'"

Mamie perhaps summed it up herself when she said she's not envious or jealous of anybody. "Anybody that can make it has something on the ball," Mamie said. "These blondes ain't so dumb."

THE WEEK-END WINDUP . . .

"DON'T PRINT THAT!" A popular movie hero is living dangerously offscreen too—his girl friend arrived in L.A. from N.Y. the day his wife left L.A. for N.Y. . . . A theatrical personality who entered a hospital to rest up was told by the annoyed doctor, "We're crowded here. I'm going to examine your chart—AND YOU'D BETTER BE SICK!"

Develop Extra Cylinders in Yourself To Do First Rate Job, Expert Advises

Morris I. Pickus, the nation's number-one white elephant hunter, regards today's American man as a six-cylinder animal who somehow manages to stumble along on two spark plugs.

"It's about time he learned to use at least three plugs—that's what I'm here for," said the easy-going citizen whose insight turned the process of "killing people with kindness" into a multi-million-dollar proposition.

PICKUS, A STUBBY, affable New Yorker, is president of the Personnel Institute, Inc., an enterprise that screens managerial talent for such giant outfits as General Electric.

"Our motto is 'market expansion through manpower development,' and we live up to every word of it," Pickus noted. Which is one way of saying that Personnel Institute teaches the nation's major corporations how to develop the most important factor of their business—manpower.

FOR MORE THAN 22 years, Pickus has successfully preached the philosophy that man is short-changing himself by not utilizing his creative brainpower, personality and character.

An out-going individual himself, Pickus feels that complacent, self-centered citizens are destined for lackluster roles in any business world.

"IT'S PARTLY A matter of attitude," he said. "Employees should learn to be creative, improve their jobs—and if they don't like what they're doing, they should have enough initiative to get out and find something they do like."

Pickus believes that no man is successful unless he likes what he is doing, and even then he needs the help of someone else.

That someone else is the boss—management, that is—which is

1,500 Mile Missile To Be Ready in Matter of Months

WASHINGTON — Chairman Richard B. Russell (D-Ga.) of the Senate Armed Services Committee said today the 1,500-mile intermediate range ballistic missile will be ready for use "in a matter of months."

Russell made the statement to newsmen after a two-day briefing by Air Force Secretary Donald A. Quarles and Gen. Nathan F. Twining, Air Force chief of staff.

He said progress on the missile has advanced to a point where "we hope to have them operational at a reasonably early date."

"By this, I mean a matter of months, rather than a matter of days," Russell said.

His statement was the first official confirmation that the 1,500-mile missile is so near the operational stage. He apparently referred to the Air Force's Thor missile. The Army is also developing a medium-range missile called the Jupiter.

where the "white elephant" comes in.

PICKUS' PERSONAL white elephant is a human being, the employee who's neglected by a boss too short-sighted to exert enough personal interest to develop his men to their fullest ability.

"If any man is fired after 20 years of steady employment, the boss should be sent to jail," Pickus declared. "If management can't put a square peg in the right hole, then who will?"

Personality and brainpower are key words in Pickus' vocabulary. He finds that the average person uses 30 per cent ("two cylinders") of his mental ability and fails to inject his personality and interest into what he's doing.

SALESMEN, for instance, come in for a big share of Pickus' criticism, and nothing exceeds the importance of selling.

"Nothing ever happens until someone sells something," Pickus explained. "Everything is salesmanship. It has to be, otherwise everything would come to a standstill."

While vacationing at Palm Springs' Howard Manor, Pickus particularly singled out the "lackadaisical" attitude of Village merchants who relied on the area's climate to draw customers, instead of their own personalities.

"I DON'T KNOW of any place to compare with Palm Springs," he said. "But I noticed absolutely nothing unusual in a town where the unusual should be."

Pickus claimed that local retail salesmen failed to take an interest in their customers. They are too cold and impersonal, and fail to sell themselves, as well as Palm Springs, to the public.

Trouble is, Pickus maintains, that too many people are too busy thinking about themselves to extend any warmth to the citizens with whom they come in contact.

"Get outside yourself," is Pickus' advice. "Try to 'kill' everybody with kindness, and if everybody does it, we'll all be successful."

There is more railway mileage in the U.S. than in any other country, but British Railways carry more passengers than any other system.

TURN OFF THE HIGHWAY IN BANNING —

Surprises

—greet you at every turn as you drive through the hillside residential area with its lovely tree-shaded streets.

LIVE LEISURELY in this magnificent setting with its charming village environment

BANNING OFFERS CONTRAST! — yes, an amazing contrast to metropolitan congestion, turmoil and smog. Here is a delightful, unspoiled community nestled between Southern California's two highest peaks. Its quaint village environment, lovely homes, beautiful tree-shaded streets and mild year round climate present a rare combination. The setting is superb. Because it is the gateway to the desert, main entrance to the wild, and close to other varied mountain resorts and scenic spots, a dull moment is simply unknown to visitors or permanent residents. Among Banning's unusual attractions are the colorful outdoor programs presented during the cool summer evenings in the picturesque Playhouse Bowl in beautiful Repplier Park.

New 42-Unit Cooperative Apartment Project Planned by Long Beach Man

Ultimate construction of a 42-unit cooperative apartment project to be known as Desert Holly, with the first 14 units now under construction, was announced this week by William O'Brien, contractor and builder.

The new cooperative is located at the corner of McCallum Way and Sunset Way, approximately 2,000 feet east of Sunrise Way, and is expected to cost approximately $750,000 when completed, O'Brien said.

THE FIRST 14 units will be ready for occupancy sometime in October of this year.

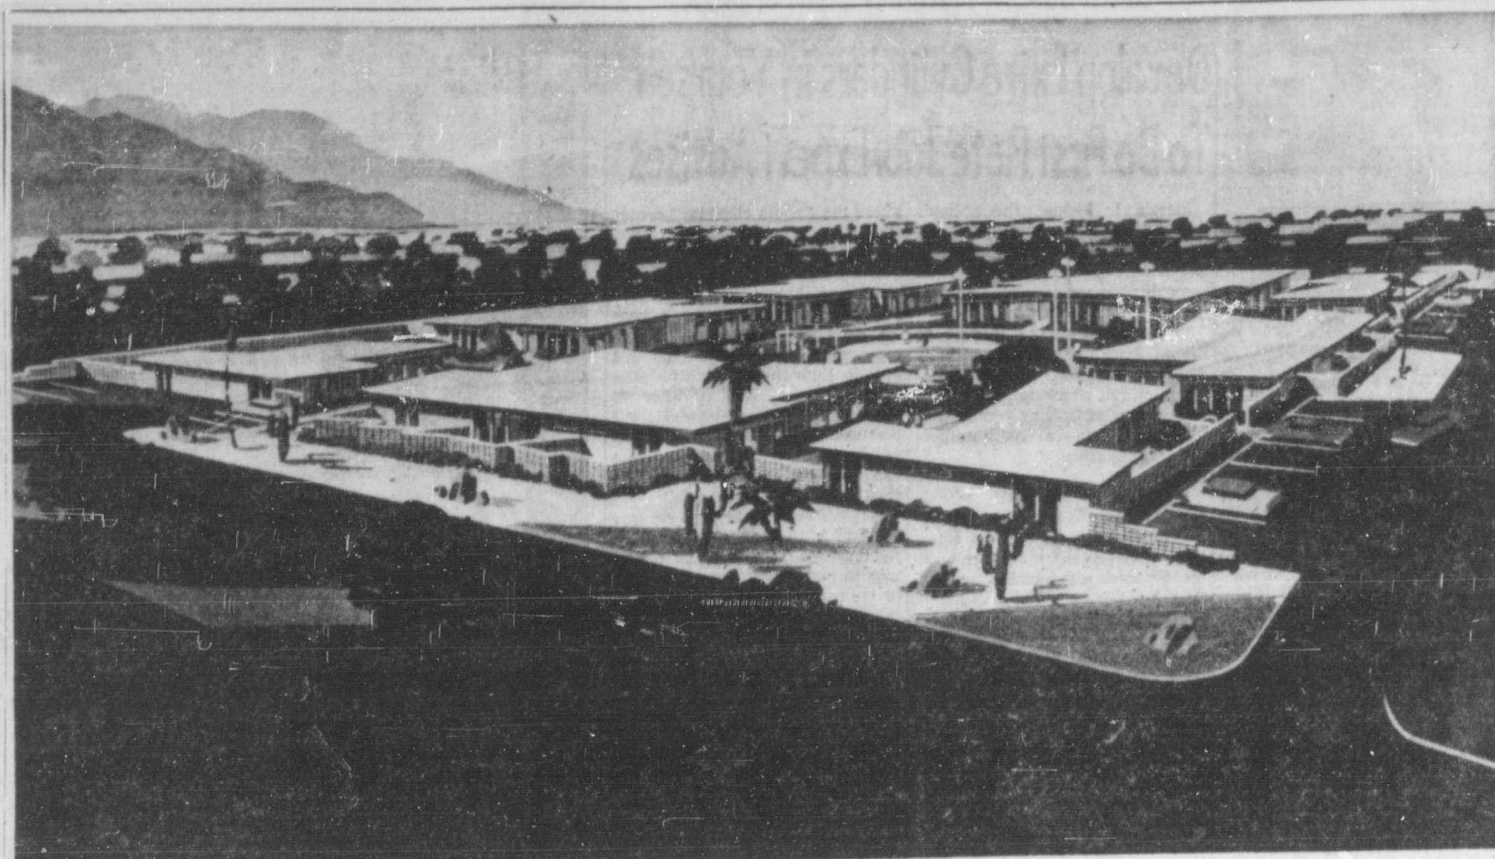

O'Brien said the sale of these units will have unique features.

and the plan will be announced sometime this summer. Interest in this new cooperative has already reached widespread proportions although no apartment has been sold, it was learned.

According to O'Brien, the units will eventually sell in a price from $15,000 to $19,500 for the two bedroom apartments. Each unit will feature the latest and most modern built-ins, such as kitchen ranges, refrigerators, garbage disposals and air conditioning by refrigeration. Each apartment also will have its own patio.

THE RECREATIONAL area in addition to a large swimming pool, will have a shuffleboard zone.

O'Brien, who hails from Long Beach, has been a general building contractor in that city for more than 11 years. His father, William O'Brien, Sr., although 70 years of age, has been engaged in construction for more than 38 years and is taking an active interest in the cooperative apartment now under construction here.

NEW COOPERATIVE to be known as the Desert Holly Apartments, which will ultimately cost approximately $750,000, is under construction at McCallum Way and

Sunset Way. William O'Brien, Long Beach general contractor, is the owner and builder, with sale of the apartments to take place sometime this summer when the sales plans are completed. "It is hoped when our sale plan is completed it will be the most unique on the Desert," said O'Brien.

County CofC's To Hear Anti Litterbug Talk

Herb Ecclestone, president of the Riverside County Association of Chambers of Commerce, announced today that the next meeting of the association will be held Tuesday, April 16, at 12 noon at the Lake Elsinore Hotel in Elsinore.

Speaker of the afternoon will be Arthur Chase, Co-ordinating Director of the "Parky" Clean-up program, whose subject is "The Parky Program and What It Has Done for the Los Angeles Area." He will be introduced by John Van Pelt, Co-ordinator of Anti-Litter Information for the Association.

Choral Eucharist To Be Feature At St. Paul's

Tomorrow, the fifth Sunday in Lent, marks the beginning of the observance of the season of Paschionide at St. Paul's in the Desert Episcopal Church.

Holy Communion will be celebrated both at 8 a.m. and at 11 a.m.

The special music and lessons for the forthcoming two weeks will deal with the close of Jesus' earthly ministry, leading up to the story of Good Friday and Easter Day. Following the tradition of the church, the crosses will be veiled and the musical portions much more somber than the rest of the year. The choir will sing as an anthem, "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs" by Antonio Lotti.

The Church School will meet tomorrow as usual at 9:15 a.m. at which time the junior choir, under the direction of Mrs. Alex Hammond, will sing.

St. Paul's Church is open for meditation daily. Visitors to town, as well as members, are welcome to drop in at any time.

The High School Young People's Group of the church will meet tomorrow evening, but will meet the following Sunday, Palm Sunday, at the usual time.

'Are Emotions Contagious?' Is Sermon Sunday

"... live in peace; and the God of Love and peace shall be with you." (II Cor. 13:11).

"Spiritual mind healing is the result of the constructive use of a mental law which the world is gradually beginning to understand. Since we are thinking beings and cannot stop thinking, and since Creative Mind receives our thought and cannot stop creating, it must always be creating something for us. What it will make depends wholly upon what we are thinking, and what we shall attract will depend upon that on which our thoughts dwell." (Science of Mind Textbook.)

THE QUESTION OF whether or not our emotions are contagious will be answered, according to the philosophy of Religious Science, by Dr. Irma Glen Sunday morning at 10:45 at El Paseo Theatre.

Junior Church is held simultaneously in the same building and all children are lovingly invited to attend. Junior Church is under the direction of Larry and Rhodanne Foy.

THE CHURCH OF Religious Science, Dr. Ernest Holmes, Founder, announces a new open class for business people at noon on Fridays at the home of the minister, 1110 Buena Vista Drive. This class will feature treatment, healing, and discussion.

The regular midweek meeting is held at the same address on Thursday evenings at 8 o'clock. There is no charge and all are invited to participate in the study of Truth principles as revealed in the Bibles of the world as well as in scientific fields, Dr. Glen said.

Safety Slogan Set for Week

Safety slogan to be observed by students in the Palm Springs Unified District next week is "Never hop rides on rear bumpers of cars, trucks or buses," according to George Bond, superintendent of transportation and school safety director.

Each week a different slogan is selected, to be repeated by students as they board buses en route to or from school.

School Menus Listed as Aid In Avoiding Meal Duplication

Menus to be served in schools in the Palm Springs Unified District next week are listed below to aid mothers in avoiding duplication of meals.

The Elementary Schools menu follows:

Monday—Tamales, combination salad, whole wheat roll and margarine, fruit jello, milk.

Tuesday—Oven grilled cheese sandwich, kidney bean salad, tomato or orange juice, tapioca pudding, milk.

Wednesday—Italian delight, carrot and raisin salad, hot french bread and margarine, sliced peaches and cookie, milk.

Thursday—Meat pie, bread and margarine, apple sauce, cinnamon roll, milk.

Friday—Baked Iceland cod, tartar sauce or lemon, parsley cole slaw, corn bread and margarine, berry cobbler, milk.

THE HIGH SCHOOL menu follows:

Monday—Chicken rice soup or buttered carrots, tamales pie or cheeseburger, combination salad, apple juice, grapefruit, orange and pineapple fruit cup; fruit jello, peanut butter cookie, or baked custard; milk.

Tuesday—Vegetable soup or mashed potatoes; grilled cheese or Salisbury steak; kidney bean

REV. JOHN C. DENTON

Revival Meeting For Week Set At First Baptist

The First Southern Baptist Church of Cathedral City will hold a revival meeting Sunday, April 7, through Sunday, April 14.

The Rev. John C. Denton, pastor of the Sharp Park Baptist Church, near San Francisco, will be the Evangelist during the revival. Rev. Denton has served as pastor in Texas churches and has served two years as a missionary in Alaska.

The services will begin each evening at 7:30 p.m. The church is located at 38-066 Cathedral Canyon Drive.

The pastor, Billy D. Perdue, and his congregation cordially invite the public to attend.

Village Baptists To Hear Laguna Beach Soloist

The Palm Springs Baptist Church holding services in the Plaza Theatre will present as guest soloist for the 11 o'clock service Vann Newinger, featured soloist for the nationally famous Festival of Arts and Pageant of Masters of Laguna Beach.

The minister of the church, Rev. A. Keith Bauserman, will be speaking on the theme "Journey into Light."

The Palm Springs Baptist Church with Dewey Erick conducts the "Chimes in the Desert" Baptist Hour now in its fifth year from KCMJ every Sunday morning from 8:05 a.m. to 9 a.m.

Everyone is invited to the services and fellowship of the church. There is free parking for all attending the church in the parking lot across from the Desert Museum.

'Unreality' Set As Sermon in Science Church

The Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches is on the topic "Unreality." In this sermon the nature of God as infinite good is weighed against all that would challenge His supremacy and power.

A brief statement on the subject from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy reads, "The unreality of Truth—named error,—the opposite of Science, and the evidence before the five corporeal senses, afford no indication of the grand facts of being; even as these so-called senses receive no intimation of the earth's motions or of the science of astronomy, but yield assent to astronomical propositions on the authority of natural science" (p. 471).

This is correlated by the words of Paul to the Corinthians, "But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned" (I Cor. 2:14).

The Golden Text for the sermon from Ecclesiastes (5:7) says, "In the multitude of dreams and many words there are also divers vanities: but fear thou God."

Lutheran Youth To Attend Meet

The Youth Group of Our Savior's Lutheran Church will attend the District Spring Rally of the Southern California International Waltham League, at Pasadena at 2:30 p.m., Sunday.

Here the Palm Springs Group which was recently organized, will be formally presented its national charter. Local president Ron Ristau will accept the charter.

The Rally theme is "Our Family Life." Activities for the day will include a religious pageant, supper, singing, and special youth yespers. Some 400 young people are expected to attend.

Baptist Home Official to Be Speaker Sunday

The Rev. Edward Pearson, public relations director for the Children's Baptist Home in Inglewood, will be guest speaker at the First Baptist Church in Thermal next Sunday morning at the 11 a.m. Worship. His sermon topic will be: "Highways for God."

Don Wire will render a vocal solo. The church will extend the hand of fellowship to new members, and the Communion service will be observed.

Rev. Pearson will speak briefly at the Sunday School opening program at 9:45 a.m. concerning the work of the Children's Baptist Home. The Home has the care of about 76 children.

Utah has the lowest death rate in the U.S. with seven per thousand. Highest is New Hampshire, 11.8 per thousand.

Holy Sacrament to Be Observed, Victory Tea Set

The Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the Community Church of Palm Springs Sunday morning at both the 9:30 and 11 o'clock worship services.

Dr. James Blackstone, pastor, will bring a Communion meditation on "Christ and Our Sorrows." New members will be received into the fellowship of the church at 11 o'clock service.

THE CHANCEL CHOIR will sing Handel's anthem, "Surely He Hath Borne Our Griefs," under the direction of Elmer Young with Lois Lux at the organ.

A Nursery is conducted during the 9:30 and 11 o'clock worship service for the care of small children.

The Sunday School departments meet at 9:30 with classes of instruction for all age groups. Graded material is used in all of the departments which adds interest to the teaching. The Beginners and the Junior High departments are both located in their new buildings across the street from the church in the newly acquired properties.

AT 11 O'CLOCK a Primary Church and a Junior Church is in session and is proving to be of great interest, children in both of these departments are invited and urged to attend. Sunday School classes are also held for the smaller children.

At 5:05 Sunday afternoon a "Victory Tea" will be held for the "Forward in Faith" campaign. All members and friends of the church are invited to attend. Last Wednesday evening approximately 70 workers, team captains and division leaders were present for a meeting at 9:00 in the Social Hall. Mrs. Gordon Nicholson and her committee served refreshments before the report meeting. Added reports at this meeting brought the total to 206 pledges amounting to $146,000.

THE CHRISTIAN Endeavor meetings, for the Junior High and the Senior High young people will be held at 6:15 p.m. interesting meetings have been planned for both programs.

At 7:30 p.m. Hugh Givens will direct the High School Choir, and a film "Angel in Ebony" will be shown.

Chief among the gases used for anesthesia are oxygen, nitrous oxide, helium-oxygen mixtures, ethylene, cyclopropane, carbon dioxide and oxygen-carbon dioxide mixtures.

Start Advance Ticket Sale For Philharmonic Concert

General admission ticket sales officially opened for the appearance of the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra at the Polo Grounds, Sunday night, April 14, in the booth at 150 North Palm Canyon Drive yesterday.

Manning the booth for sponsors of the event, the Playhouse Guild, were Mrs. Harold Murphy and Mrs. Grace Pope. Having the distinction of being the first purchaser of general admission seats was Mrs. Betty Hamilton who secured one for herself and one for her 14-year-old son, Michael.

There will be seating capacity in the arena of the Polo Grounds for 3,000 persons and ticket prices are $1, $2, and $5 with a special student price of 50 cents in either of the first two locations.

Among early box seat holders are Messrs. and Mrs. Harry F. Clatworthy, Max E. Schwab, Halway Kemper, James Kemper, Charles Farrell, Richard Bagdasarian, Donald S. Gilmore, James E. French, Ennis St. Cyr, Robert S. Howard, Harry Joe Brown, Dolph Oberfel, Joseph Froggatt, John Luccarelli, Leon G. Koerner, William Otto, Alfred Dreyfus, John Gallois, David H. Margolis, Mel Eaton, John Kenaston, Beverly K. DeTarr, Victor Hugo-Vidal, A. R. Simon, George Cameron, William B. Malouf, George Robinson, John Stauffer, Ernest Alschuler, Herbert Burns, Major and Mrs. Reuben Fleet; also, Mmes. Ruth Hardy, Charles Dant, W. F. Schlothan, Hilda Maraniss, Bertine Treat, Alexander Marcuse, Gustave Berg and Messrs. Sam Levin, Edgar McCoubrey, Arthur Elrod and Dr. and Mrs. Henry S. Dollard and Dr. and Mrs. Robert G. Backstrom.

Others in the box seat circle will be Messrs. and Mrs. Norman Waters, Louis Benoit, Howard McKay, Lloyd Tevis, Maurice Horner, Franklyn MacCarthy, Joe D. Hale and Mmes. Anne Gougler, Nion Tucker, Arthur G. Kane, Miss Jeanne Ballard, Mr. Cliff Henderson and Dr. and Mrs. Samuel Salinger.

In addition to the ticket booth, tickets may be purchased at the Chamber of Commerce, 137 North Palm Canyon Drive, and Playhouse Guild headquarters at the Desert Inn grounds.

Coordinator Arranges Style Show Schedule

Waltah Clarke's Hawaiian shops, first concern in Palm Springs to have its own fashion coordinator to produce and promote fashion shows, Barbara DeVorzon has arranged a full schedule of Waltah Clarke Hawaiian fashion shows.

El Mirador has one each Saturday at noon and Howard Manor each Saturday at 1 p.m. Biltmore has a style show each Sunday noon, and every other Sunday there is one at LaQuinta at 2 p.m.

During the week Waltah gives a show at The Springs restaurant on Thursday at 1 p.m., and Thursday nights at 7:30 at the Desert Air Hotel.

Waltah became interested in Hawaiian fashions a few years back and staged the first all Hawaiian show ever given on the mainland, at El Mirador five years ago. He started out with a very small shop here in Palm Springs and now has six, three here, one at Laguna Beach, one at Disneyland, and a new one on Balboa Island.

Around Town

with Hildy Crawford

April has blessed Palm Springs . . . with flowers blooming riotously in Village gardens . . . summer weather . . . and a leisurely mid-week between two busy weekends . . . There's green on the mountain slopes . . . the sky is blue overhead . . . and even as you wander along Palm Canyon Drive . . . or freshen your suntan out by the pool . . . or sit at a typewriter indoors . . . you know that there's purpling verberna trailing over the sand dunes of the desert . . . just outside of town . . . that the golf courses are green and glorious . . . and life is wonderful . . .

The opening stanza of April has caught the heart beat of the Village . . .

Out at Thunderbird . . . golfers from all over the country are beginning to arrive for next week's Out of This World golf tournament . . . and tonight is the first of the big social events planned for the entrants and their wives . . . when Barbara and Bob McCulloch will entertain around 500 at cocktails and dinner . . . at their fabulous home . . . located on the golf course . . .

Mr. and Mrs. William Elser of LaJolla (he's president of LaJolla Country Club) are motoring to Palm Springs on Monday . . . to be houseguests of the Reuben Fleets . . . and the two men will play in the Out of This World golf tournament . . . Mrs. Albert E. Scott will accompany the Elsers . . . and will spend a few days here with her daughter Beth Scott . . .

Billie and Bob Kenaston will have Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Koonitz of Los Angeles as their houseguests for the tournament week . . . They arrive Tuesday and the two men are paired in the tourney play . . .

Trudy and Paul Reynolds have issued invitations for a cocktail party on April 17 . . . which will be a housewarming for their new home on Calico Road at Thunderbird . . .

The Harold Hamiltons and Sam Taylors will co-host a cocktail party at the Tennis Club next Wednesday night . . . entertaining around 100 guests . . .

Among them will be the Holt Chews of Denver, who will be houseguests of the Hamiltons . . . the Joe Dyers and their guests Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Rogers . . . the Glenn Dotys of Beverly Hills (he will play in the tournament with Sam), the Earl Buckingham of Denver . . . the Victor Hugo-Vidals, Bob Kenastons, James Garibaldis . . . Jim Tunas, George Wrights, Charles Beckers, and John Hunters of Beverly Hills.

The Charles Lees of San Marino are arriving today for a week's stay at Desert Isle . . . and he will be paired with Walter Sibbert in the tournament . . .

Schiffs Are Hosts At Cocktails

Celebrating the hostess' birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Sydney Schiff of Palm Springs and Chicago, took over the Mural Room at the Racquet Club Thursday evening entertaining at cocktails, and later hosting several tables at dinner. The host just arrived from Chicago this week.

Among the guests were the Mel Eatons, who had with them their son and daughter-in-law, Tom and Annette Eaton of Norwich, N. Y., who arrived Saturday. Tom is vice president of the Norwich Pharmaceutical Company, of which his father is chairman of the board. The two men fly east April 23 to attend the annual meeting of the company, while the women will motor across country.

With the Co Thorntons was their son Tom, who's been in Germany with the United States Army. A former radioman with KCMJ, Tom arrived home on Saturday.

Other guests included the Jack Kenastons, Burnham Bigelows, Frank Hoys, Dick Bagdasarians, Maurice Horners, Gus Kettmanns, Asher Levys, A. R. Simons, Vie and Bud Graves, Mrs. Harry Joe Brown, Miss Rose Mints, Dr. and Mrs. George Kaplan, Mrs. Payne Jennings, Paul Carlson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mendelson, Mrs. Alexander Marcuse, Mrs. John Marcuse, Mrs. Florence Heller, Mrs. Lee Frank, the Lloyd Simons, Sol Lessers, Julian Livingstons, and more.

The Walt Disneys were at The Springs Thursday night . . . hosting a dinner for six . . .

Ruth and Rolf Cutler (he's with E. F. Hutton Co.) who leased the Churchill house on San Lorenzo Road for the winter . . . have moved into the new house they purchased at 444 Via Lola . . . and expect to be here until sometime in May . . .

After the dinner party given by Evelyn and Sydney Schiff at the Racquet Club Thursday evening . . . we joined Winsome Courtney and Hal Hayes to go over to Howard Manor to take a look at and a ride in Hal's new car . . . which is a super-sensation and the longest (21 feet) I've ever seen . . . Custom built for him by Cadillac . . . it has 400 horsepower under its gleaming hood . . . It's equipped with a bar and hi fi . . . and such other interesting gadgets as a device that allows Hal to turn on the lights and music in his house . . . when he gets within a five-mile radius of it . . . The super-Cadillac has already cost in excess of $17,000 . . . and its a black beauty . . . Helen and Jack Kenaston were in the party admiring it . . . and Jack was one of the first to drive it around town.

Easter Parade Planned

Plans for the Easter Parade to be held in The Center on Easter Sunday, from 1 to 2 p.m., are gaining momentum this week, according to Ida Keeney, chairman of the Parade, which is being sponsored by Soroptimist International of Palm Springs.

An Easter Bunny will be skipping around among the paraders delivering candy eggs, to add to the colorful scene as Villagers parade in their Easter finery.

There will be prizes for the best dressed couple, family, woman, man, teenage boy and teenage girl, grade school boy and grade school girl, twins, mother and daughter, father and son, and one for the best looking hat.

Judges will be Mayor Florian Boyd, Jimmy Cooper, Edith Carlson, Bill Rashall and Mabel Russell.

Invitations are being sent out to all Churches, Service Clubs, lodges and schools to have entries in the big parade.

Committee members, working with Mrs. Keeney are Marie Ford, Esther Wenzel, Gurli Gilbert and Elsie Aden.

D.A.R. to Elect Next Thursday

Cahuilla Chapter D.A.R. will meet April 11 at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. R. R. Jones, 73418 Pinyon in Palm Desert, with election of officers the most important part of the agenda.

Hostesses will be Mrs. Florence Bacon and Mrs. Herbert Foster. Mrs. Saul Ruskin will have charge of the program.

Authoress Addresses The Writers

The authoress, Cornelia Jessey, known to Palm Springs and vicinity as Mrs. Irving Sussman of Cathedral City, was guest speaker at the regular meeting of The Writers' Guild Wednesday evening. Mrs. Sussman is the author of the novels, 'The Treasures of Darkness', 'The Growing Roots' and 'Teach the Angry Spirit', as well as other noteworthy works, such as two volumes of essays titled 'The Bridge' on which she collaborated with her husband, a teacher in Palm Springs High School.

She brought many interesting and valuable suggestions to this group of writers, advising all who wish to write to read and read and read. The repetition is advised again when sending manuscripts to market. "Send them 100 times if necessary," she said. Mrs. Sussman complimented the group on the outstanding work it is doing and the growth it is making. "The place to go," she remarked "to solve your writing problems is to other authors. A class is only stimulation and gives a foundation in writing craftsmanship, but discussion with other writers will help to solve many problems." She stressed the necessity for craftsmanship in all writing.

Ray Millett, an old member recently returned to Palm Springs, renewed his membership with The Writers' Guild and Desert Art Center last night. Two others were welcomed to membership—Linda Crosby and Bea Faust. Mrs. Faust was given 'verbal orchids' in recognition of the first sale of her work, an article to Mobile Homes.

Mrs. Winifred 'Ted' Cooper president, presided and lead the criticism of members' work on Story Opening. A first chapter of a book being written by Mr. and Mrs. Ervin R. Haig was also read and criticized.

The next regular meeting of The Writers' Guild will be held April 17, at The Desert Art Center, 211 S. Palm Canyon Drive.

Reservations for theatre and dining room may be made at LYcoming 5-1288.

Club to Elect at Last Meeting

Election of officers is on the agenda for the regular meeting of the Palm Springs Business Women's Club which will be held Monday night, April 9, at 7:30 p.m. in the American Legion Auxiliary room.

President Tess Potter urges all members to attend as this is the last meeting of the winter season and plans will be made for April and May activities.

Refreshments will be served following the meeting.

Lease House for April Stay

Dr. Charles Arnold Reagan has leased the Paul William Lawrence, Jr. house located at 1135 East El Alameda in Palm Springs for a part of April. His young daughter, Patricia Gail, will be with him. She is a Junior at Marlborough School for Girls in Los Angeles and is active in the Ticktocks of the National Charity League, the "In-B-Tweens" of the League for Crippled Children, the Mannequins of the Assistance League and the Debutante Guild.

Dr. Reagan is a popular member of the Cinema Club, the Wine & Food Society and the West Hills Hunt Club. Dr. Reagan owns several sections of land off Sunrise Way, which he plans to develop in the near future.

Uncooked meat should be stored uncovered or loosely covered while in the refrigerator. Freezing meat does not appreciably affect the tenderness. Only a small amount of liquid should be added when braising meats. Steaks and chops should be seasoned after browning.

Circle to Hold Rummage Sale

The Women's Circle of the Community Church is planning a rummage sale for April 28 and 29 at 343 N. Indian, in the building formerly occupied by Neel's Nursery. Mrs. Jack Williams and Mrs. Robert Beck are co-chairmen of the project with a committee composed of Mrs. George E. Davies, Mrs. Corinne Carlisle, and Mrs. Grace Kiker.

Articles of clothing, household goods, books, and miscellany will be offered for sale. Contributions may be taken to the residence of James McManus on the parking lot of the Community Church or one may call 9823 or 2606 for collections.

Proceeds from this rummage sale will go toward furnishing a new and larger kitchen in the proposed expansion of the church facilities.

Lamb Leftovers

Leftover lamb can be served just as attractively as the first day main meat dish. It can be served as barbecued lamb hash, lamb a la king, sandwiches, salads, or in the famous East Indian Curry.

Rain Dances In Play At Padua Hills

Studded with Indian - Mexican songs and rain dances, "En el Mes de Mayo" produced by the Mexican Players opens for a six weeks run at Padua Hills on April 3.

The three act play's title translated means "in the month of May". The dramatic story tells of a special fiesta to San Ysidro, who is the patron saint of Mexican farmers on whom they depend for their rains and hence their crops.

Velia Soto, who came to Padua Hills two months ago, makes her debut on stage as the female romantic lead opposite Rogelio Alfaro. Miss Soto portrays the role of Maria Luz, while Alfaro plays Chilo, who seeks to emulate San Ysidro. The dialogue is in English. "En el Mes de Mayo" is presented each spring at the Padua Hills Theatre and is the only play by the Mexican Players which probes into the pre-Spanish Indian origins of Mexican music and dances.

Directed by Eligio Herrera, the play will feature Micaela Velazquez, Conchita Gallardo, Luis Abundiz, Vida Amador, Ricardo Chavez, Maria Abundiz, and other members of the Mexican Players. The production will be presented nightly at 8:30 Wednesday through Saturday with matinees at 2:30 p.m. Wednesdays and Saturdays.

Padua Hills Dining Room entertainers perform at luncheon and dinner daily except Mondays.

Sports Car Races Under Way

140 Drivers Entered in 15 Speed Events

Eight Races Sunday to Climax 2 Days of Thrilling Events

Motors were roaring at Palm Springs Airport this afternoon as headline Sports Car drivers started a two-day 15-race program, the 12th annual Palm Springs Road Races and the first event on the 1957 Sports Car race program.

The races are under the auspices of the Los Angeles Region of the Sports Car Club of America. Qualifying laps for tomorrow's races and seven race events were on today's program.

EIGHT RACES with the 25-lap main event scheduled for 3 p.m. are on tomorrow's program.

First race tomorrow is scheduled at 10 a.m. It is 10 laps for production MGs under 1300cc and production sedans under 1500cc.

Other races tomorrow are:

No. 2—10 laps, production Sports Cars under 1600cc.

No. 3—10 laps, Ladies race, all classes.

No. 4—10 laps, production category, 1600cc-27cc.

No. 5—3 laps, Veteran cars exhibition race.

No. 6—25 laps, sports category under 1500cc.

No. 7—10 laps, production Sports Cars over 2700cc.

No. 8—Main event, 25 laps, Sports Category over 1500cc.

LINDLEY BOTHWELL, regional club president and in charge of arrangements for the races, said that 140 entries have been received for the two-day program.

Among the big names on the entry list are those of Jack Bates, Altadena, Mercedes 300SL; Tracy Bird, Tucson, Porsche 550 Spyder; Lew Bracker, Studio City, Porsche Carrera; Jim Parkinson, Burbank, Deutsch-Bonnet Panhard; John Colombero, Etiwanda, Mercedes 300SL; Bill Murphy, Culver City, Buick-Kurtis; Bob Drake, Redondo Beach, Cooper-Climax and Corvete; Bob Weller, L.A., Jag XK-140MC; Jerry Austin, Arcadia, D-Jaguar and Carroll Shelby, Dailis, 3-Litre Maserati.

PHIL HILL, Santa Monica ace, almost missed the Palm Springs meet until Tony Parravano, Inglewood contractor, stepped into the breach with his Ferrari Monza at the very last minute. So it looks as though Sunday's big bore modified event will be a repeat of last year's Palm Springs Shelby-Hill dual.

Marlene Hagge Leads In Zaharias Tourney

BEAUMONT, Tex.—Marlene Hagge, in fine form for defense of her Babe Zaharias Open Golf Tournament title, set the pace with a one-under-par 72 as the field started the second round at Beaumont Country Club today.

Mrs. Hagge collected three birdies and a pair of bogeys Friday as she stepped a stroke out in front of Ruth (Wheaties) Jensen of Seattle, Wash.

First Tourney At Indian Wells

First annual Ladies Member-Guest tournament was held Thursday at Indian Wells Country Club with Mrs. Peggy Lester and Mrs. Paul Prom in charge of arrangements.

Magda Rurac turned in the low gross card for the day with a 76. Class A low net winners were Mrs. Lester with an 82-15-58; Mrs. McIntyre, 80-10-70; Mrs. Lindsey, 82-12-70.

Class B low net winners were Mrs. Elliott, 88-25-63; Mrs. Parker, 95-30-65; Mrs. Crux, 94-29-65.

A luncheon at Desi Arnaz Western Hills Hotel preceded the tournament.

Needles Tries Again After Four Losses

HALLANDALE, Fla.—Needles, the 1956 Kentucky Derby winner who has been beaten in his last four starts, tries the comeback trail against 12 rivals today in the $25,000 Added Fort Lauderdale Handicap at Gulfstream Park.

Indians to Host Triangular Tank Meet on Tuesday

San Bernardino and Coachella High Schools will be here Tuesday for a triangular meet with Palm Springs High.

Coach Wayland Reynolds' Indian swim team is currently riding high in Citrus Belt circles. Because of lack of competition in the Riverside County League, Palm Springs High is a member of the Citrus Belt League in the aquatic sport.

PHIL HILL, who fought it out with Carroll Shelby at Palm Springs airport, is back again and tomorrow will renew his duel with Shelby.

Leading Women Golfers Compete At O'Donnell Club

Practically all of the leading women golfers in California and several from outside the state will tee off next week in the 22nd renewal of the Palm Springs Women's Invitational Golf Championship which gets under way Monday with a putting approach and driving contest and the first round of higher handicap play.

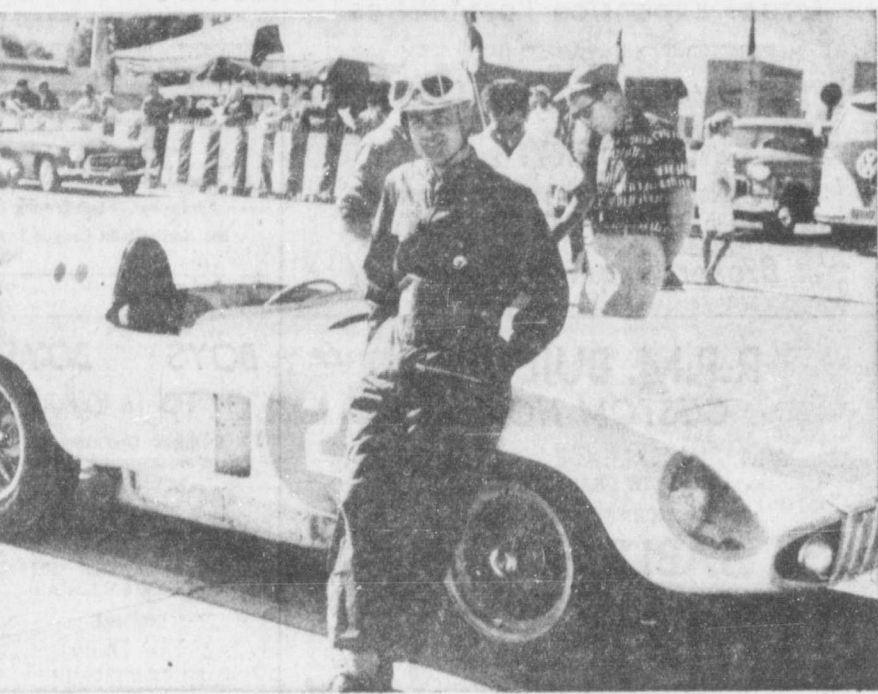

The Championship Flight (0-11 handicaps) starts Tuesday morning with top Palm Springs area and state leaders going 18 holes of medal play that day and winding up with 18 Wednesday.

Finals in the putting contest, which is by match play, will be held Wednesday.

The Palm Springs Flight (12-19) and the Desert Flight (20-30), will complete the three divisions of the 22nd annual event.

THE QUEEN, Jan Harrison, who presides today and tomorrow over the 12th annual Palm Springs Road Races at the Airport. The two-day 15-race program has attracted 140 of the top Sports Car drivers in the nation.

PHIL HILL, who fought it out with Carroll Shelby at Palm Springs airport, is back again and tomorrow will renew his duel with Shelby.

Arabs Sweep Eastern RCL Division Meet

Indians Second in All Three Sections of Semi-Final Trials

Coachella High School's Arabs continued their domination of Riverside County League track and field circles Friday when they swept the Eastern RCL division finals in Varsity, Bee and Cee brackets.

Clare Ballagh's Palm Springs High Indians finished second in each division.

The Varsity scores were Coachella, 107; Palm Springs, 48; Banning, 13; Beaumont, 7.

THE BEE MEET wound up with Coachella, 107; Palm Springs, 37; Banning, 15; Beaumont, 7.

In the Cee bracket the Arabs had 94, Palm Springs, 37, Banning, 15, Beaumont, 1.

Pendergast took the 180 low sticks in 21.2 and the local 880 relay team won in 1:35 for firsts in the Varsity division.

In the Bee division, Sentil won the 220 in 24 flat and Jackson the pole vault at 10 feet, 6 inches for the only Indian firsts.

EASTON TOOK the 660 in 1:34.0 in the Cee bracket and Crawford the high jump at 5 feet, 3 1/2 inches for a local pair of firsts.

Winners of the first five places in each event qualified for the Riverside County League finals to be held at Perris High next Saturday.

New Pro Grid Loop In the Making Today

BALTIMORE—Insisting that the time is ripe for a new professional football circuit, representatives from 13 cities meet behind closed doors today to begin mapping plans.

Invited to the meeting were delegates from Miami, Atlanta, New Orleans, Louisville, St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas, Houston, Boston, Buffalo, Cincinnati, Milwaukee and Minneapolis.

DETROIT—Tony Anthony, a former china-jawed middleweight who became a sensational light-heavy in knocking out Chuck Spieser Friday night, today looked past his June 7 title fight with Archie Moore to Floyd Patterson.

Anthony, a Harlem musician with a real smooth ring glide, surprised everybody—even himself—by shaking up top-ranked light-heavy Spieser in the first, putting him down and almost out in the second and cleanly kayoing the balding favorite in the third.

Archie Moore, 43, fat and fading in the deep twilight of a boxing career that has had a long afternoon, has already signed to meet the winner in the same Olympic Stadium ring June 7.

How about heavyweight champ Patterson? "That's who we're after," said Ernie Braca, Anthony's manager.

Cut to Field of 6

SAN MATEO—Four Kentucky Derby eligibles go to the post in a select field of six in the run for top money today in the $25,500 Bay Meadows Derby.

With Swirling Abbey and Round Table expected to finish one-two.

CELTICS, HAWKS MEET AGAIN

ST. LOUIS—Pro basketball's haves and have-nots, the Boston Celtics and the St. Louis Hawks, will meet tonight in the third playoff game for the National Basketball Association championship.

Favor Middlecoff in Champions' Tourney

LAS VEGAS, Nev.—Cary Middlecoff, the 1956 U.S. Open champion, has been installed the 4-1 favorite in the latest official rundown of odds for the fifth annual $38,500 Tournament of Champions here, April 18-21. Gene Littler, Ted Kroll and Mike Souchak are tied for second at 8-1.

Snead Leads Masters by 2

AUGUSTA, Ga. (UP)—It sounded like an old story in the Masters Golf Tournament today with the only two three-time winners chasing each other down the stretch—but Sam Snead had two strokes and two years over Jimmy Demaret.

Snead, playing a perilous game that saw him recoup from a double-bogey with a daring eagle for a second round 68, led the field with 140 after 36 holes. Demaret, whose only throw-back to his former carefree self was a pair of Kelly-green shoes, attacked the exacting Augusta National course with precision Friday to score a two-under 70 and trail Snead by two strokes at 142.

BOTH HAD MAJOR antagonists out of the way in their drive for top Masters money when Ben Hogan and Cary Middlecoff surprisingly failed to measure up to the 150 second-round qualifying score Friday. For the first time, the Masters field was cut to the low 40 players after the second day's play.

A cluster of challengers, including defending champion Jackie Burke, stood close behind Snead and Demaret.

Burke, who led the first round with 71 and shot an even-par 72, was only one stroke behind Demaret at 143. Ed Furgol had an even-par 144 as did steady amateur Harvey Ward.

DOUG FORD of Mahopac, N. Y., had 145 and a host waited a 146 to test the leaders.

With the field cut drastically, the tournament starts at noon today instead of the usual mid-morning tee-up.

Snead played his characteristic up and down game as he conquered wind and water for his hard-earned lead. The straw-hatted West Virginian almost counted himself out of the running when he drove into a lake on the par three 12th and took a penalty stroke and two-putt for a double-bogey.

But up against a south wind that caused Demaret to play safe for a par on the 15th, Snead drove into its face on his second shot to reach the green and hole a 25-foot putt for an eagle.

THE EVENT WAS WON last year by Thunderbird Club member Ken Evans and his guest, Dr. Peter Thomas of Los Angeles with a card of 182, going the 54-hole route 31 strokes under par with their best ball score.

Dick Meyers and Bill Worthing are co-chairmen for the tournament.

Starting tonight with a cocktail party and reception at the Robert McCulloch home for members and their guests, Thunderbird Country Club opens a week of festivities in connection with its annual "Out of this World" golf tournament.

The tournament itself starts on Wednesday but the preceding days will be filled with other activities for members and guests.

THE TOURNAMENT will see 200 players participating, 100 members and their guests in 100 twosomes.

Wednesday a bestball foursome choose-up tournament will be featured. Thursday, a selective drive, alternate shot tournament is scheduled with separate prizes for winners. It will also cover 18 holes.

Friday and Saturday the 36-hole best ball of the partners at handicapped tournament will close the program.

MARYLYNN BROWN, talented pianist from Scripps College, will be featured with the Palm Springs Civic Orchestra, tonight at the Jewish Community Center. Jascha Veissi, left, the director of instrumental ensemble at Scripps College, will direct the orchestra.

Music Festival to Open With Gala Concert Tonight

The Palm Springs Music Society, Harry Tomlinson, Musical Director, opens its April Music Festival tonight with a gala concert, Jascha Veissi conducting the Palm Springs Civic Orchestra, with Marylynn Brown, pianist; Alice and Eleanor Schoenfeld, violin and cello, and Kalman Bloch, clarinet, as soloists. The concert is scheduled for 8:15 at the Jewish Community Center.

Tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock the Festival concert will be given by Naomi Myrick, contralto; Delia Arvidson, pianist; Laurindo Almeida, guitar, and Martin Ruderman, flute.

In the evening Harry Tomlinson, Musical Director of the Festival, will conduct the Civic Chorus and Orchestra in the Brahms Requiem with Robert Bostwick, baritone, and Caterina Miceli, soprano, as soloists. In the Bach Brandenburg Concerto, also conducted by Tomlinson, the soloists will be Alice Schoenfeld, violin; Christine Tomlinson, piano, and Martin Ruderman, flute.

At 6 p.m., between the afternoon and evening performances, a

Take Pets Along Or Find Homes, Is League Plea

Palm Springs Animal Protective League today appealed to desert area residents not to abandon their "winter" pets when they leave here during the summer on vacation or to find employment elsewhere.

Each year hundreds of pets are abandoned, it was stated, causing a large majority of these to be put to death due to the small city animal shelter and limited facilities there.

The League urged residents to find a home for their pets or take them along. In addition, officials asked that contributions be made to the League for use in constructing a new modern shelter. Donations may be made to the League at 618 Mesquite Drive.

New Russian Nuclear Weapon Test Reported

WASHINGTON — The United States announced yesterday that Russia conducted another nuclear weapon test last Wednesday.

The brief announcement by Chairman Lewis L. Strauss of the Atomic Energy Commission said the test was another in Russia's "current series" but did not specify the size of the bomb or whether one or more bombs were exploded.

The announcement here was the 19th by the United States disclosing various Soviet nuclear explosions since the first Russian shot in September, 1949.

Many of the announcements have referred to a series of explosions rather than to individual shots. Russia thus has exploded many more than 19 weapons, probably in the neighborhood of 40, according to informed sources.

The United States has exploded at least 75 weapons. Great Britain has tested nine and soon will explode her first H-bomb in the Christmas Island area some 1,200 miles south of Hawaii.

Spring Fete dinner will take place at Deep Well, honoring the Festival artists. Festival tickets and reservations for the Spring Fete may be made at the door at the time of the concert.

SWEDISH INDUSTRIALIST Olof E. (Olie) Tiblum and his wife, Margareta, are this week winding up a three-week American business trip and vacation with a visit to Palm Springs' Lone Palm Hotel. It marks the first Village vacation for Tiblum, who, with his brother, operates a major machinery plant and machine distribution business in Sweden. His firm is the Scandinavian outlet for the Cleveland Ohio, machine-tool firm of the Yoder Company. (Desert Sun Photo).

U.S. Plans Newer Weapons in Korea

WASHINGTON — The United States is planning to put newer-model weapons in Korea to partly offset a reported Communist military buildup in North Korea, American officials disclosed today.

The action will be taken under a liberal new interpretation of the 1953 armistice which ended the Korean fighting. There is no intention of declaring the armistice void despite repeated evidence of Communist violations.
